

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Policy Name: Attendance Policy

Version: 1.0

Status: Active

1. POLICY STATEMENT

The Attendance Policy establishes clear expectations for employee attendance, working hours, punctuality, and attendance recording.

2. PURPOSE & SCOPE

This policy applies to employees and defines the procedures for recording attendance, managing late arrivals, early departures, and regular working schedules.

3. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

- Employees must record their attendance using the organization's approved HRMS or attendance system.
- Employees are expected to report to work according to their assigned schedule.
- Late arrival or early departure should be communicated to the reporting manager when required.
- Remote employees must follow their approved working schedule and attendance process.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

Employees are responsible for maintaining accurate attendance records. Reporting managers are responsible for monitoring attendance and addressing attendance-related issues. HR is responsible for maintaining attendance records and administering applicable rules.

5. COMPLIANCE

Repeated attendance irregularities may be reviewed according to applicable company procedures. Attendance records must be accurate and should not be manipulated.

6. REVIEW & UPDATES

HR and management may periodically review this policy and update it based on organizational requirements and applicable regulations.
